To Whom It May Concern

I am very pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Niranjana Babu. I would like to take this opportunity to express the heartfelt appreciation of the New Vrindaban Community for his service as vastu consultant and vedic astrologer.

Mr. Niranjana Babu and his wife blessed the New Vrindaban community over the weekend with their association. He provided with great care and respect to Srila Prabhupada, the Founder Acharya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, advice how to establish proper vastu within the Sri Sri Radha Vrindabanachandra temple and the New Vrindaban Community.

Mr. Niranjana Babu walked the many facilities of New Vrindaban and impressed the community with a holistic approach to establish an auspicious atmosphere, prosperity and harmonious dealings among the members. His recommendation, to rejuvenate Old Vrindaban, the first dwelling of the New Vrindaban Community and the place Srila Prabhupada stayed at his first visit for one month, convinced all members present and found their utmost consent. He coordinated with great care and dedication a sacred event at the old Vrindaban farm. Everyone present felt a transformation taking place.

Mr. Niranjana Babu has also given concise advise for the upcoming Eco village project at Madhuban, for buildings to erect in the future within the community and different private projects.

Mr. Niranjana Bahu's personal sacrifice to Srila Prabhupada's projects, attention to details, expertise in vastu, vaisnava etiquette, and deep knowledge of vedic astrology were a source of inspiration for all community members coming in contact with him during his consultations and the seminar for the members of the community.

The New Vrindaban Community is very grateful that Mr. Niranjana Babu has taken his valuable time to share his knowledge and expertise in vastu and vedic astrology for the betterment of the community.

I highly recommend Mr. Niranjana Babu for his expert consultancy in vastu and vedic astrology.

Sincerely,

JAYA KRISHNA DAS

Astrology & Successful Investing

HENRY WEINGARTEN

Henry Weingarten has been a professional astrologer for forty years. He is Managing Director of the Astrologers Fund, which uses astrology as the primary analysis tool to manage money and advise clients on finance issues. He authored Investing By The Stars, and The Study Of Astrology and the newsletter: Wall Street, Next Week.

I AM PLEASED to be part of this tribute issue to DR. B.V. RAMAN. I had the honor of sponsoring his second visit to the United States. Naturally his teachings added to my technical skill set as well as providing an inspirational role model. While I am personally bi-zodiacal (i.e. use elements of both Western and Sidereal astrology), I will here use Tropical time reference frames as well as modern solar system planets.

Financial Astrology

The use of financial astrology for both market timing and stock selection is an open secret among many successful investors. Fund managers and traders worldwide use it for both first and second opinions on global stock, bond and commodity markets. The reason is simple: forecasts made by experienced financial astrologers are often more accurate and precise than other economic modeling systems.

I have been a practicing astrologer since 1967. For the first twenty years I was in “private practice” offering individual readings most of which involved equally around questions of Love or Money. The latter were mostly vocational or job related. However, that changed after the 1987 stock market crash which I knew about one year in advance to the day. I then switched to study and specialize my practice to financial astrology. I then began to primarily advise market professionals and investors in the global markets. Later I also personally traded and managed money as well. My first three public forecasts were fortunately 100% accurate - all first given more than two years in advance: The Tokyo Market crash (within one day), The First Iraqi Gulf war (within 4 hours) and the US 1990 recession (within one month).

Ironically, only two of these made money. Why? Because all the people that correctly forecast a US War were bearish and it turns out the markets rallied on what was perceived to be an easy war. I then learned my lesson – not to predict events but rather to predict ‘how’ markets would react to events. Today I often quip that thanks to astrology, 1/3 of market “surprises” are knowable. Hence its use allows investors to ‘make more money with less risk’.

Horoscopes Galore

Just as an astrologer can look to an individual’s horoscope to forecast his or her future, so too can a financial astrologer look to the heavens for stock market guidance. Markets have horoscopes, countries have horoscopes, stocks have horoscopes, investors have horoscopes, and financial advisors have horoscopes.

Astrology, like Behavioral Finance, is the study of the psychology of markets. Astrology is defined as a “mathematical psychology based on astronomy.” Financial astrology, which includes market psychology and market timing, is utilized by an analyst as a third tool, in conjunction with fundamental and technical factors that influence market behavior. An astrological analyst studies market behavior primarily by correlating planetary cycles with historical equities, bonds, futures and options pricing. It is a stock market tool that measures time and price and its indicators can be charted in a similar manner to other technical tools such as money flows, momentum indicators, support and resistance. I personally believe it is the single best market-forecasting tool. But it is important to remember that it is not a standalone tool.

I generally use a top down approach: looking first to upcoming planetary themes and then to the horoscopes of countries, stock markets, sectors and finally individual stocks or market instruments. Then I will seek confirmations from various alternative information sources whenever possible. Alternately, a stock that has been first researched fundamentally and/or technically from either external sources or internal research may or may not be confirmed by astrological signals.

2013 Astrological Market Forecasts*

Big Picture Fundamentals

We first begin with the Big Picture Fundamentals. All the three leading global economies, US/Euroland/China will have meager to poor growth in 2013. This is not news. Next we look to the US markets for leadership in more detail. The three pillars of which are 1) The Job Market 2) Housing 3) Credit. The US job market will remain subdued with long term unemployment trends yet to be addressed. Housing will continue to be challenged for the next two years due to an overhang of future foreclosures as well as limited credit and job improvement. Finally Credit for business and individuals is and will be slightly more available but not enough to fuel a meaningful recovery.

Note: While some forecasters are predicting as high as 3% US growth - that is not our view. Also 1.5-2% of US "growth" numbers are due to under reporting of real inflation and should be subtracted from official GDP numbers for the true US economy!

Finally we see corporate earnings growth slowing, although there is an abundance of cash and credit to continue to fuel Mergers & Acquisitions at a significant pace. Still, most US companies expect 2013 to be a tough year and little sales and earnings growth overall.

Big Picture Astrology

2012-2015 We see an unprecedented seven Uranus-Pluto Squares:

1. June 24, 2012 – first global square at 8-degrees Aries/Capricorn
2. September 19, 2012 – second square at 6-degrees Aries/Capricorn
3. May 20, 2013 – third square at 11-degrees Aries/Capricorn
4. November 1, 2013 – fourth square at 9-degrees Aries/Capricorn

5. April 21, 2014 – fifth square at 13-degrees Aries/Capricorn
6. December 15, 2014 – sixth square at 12-degrees Aries/Capricorn
7. March 16/17, 2015 – seventh square at 15-degrees Aries/Capricorn

As astrologers know, these dates activate appropriate events plus or minus one year and need other astrological and mundane conditions to be fulfilled. For example we first stated in 2001 that in ten years, Americans would be "rioting in the streets", reminiscent of the 1960's rebellious youth (also a Uranus-Pluto aspect). This seemed an "unthinkable" forecast at the time and even in 2010. Yet came Occupy Wall Street, the name given to a well known grass roots protest movement that began on September 17, 2011. Unfortunately due to a poor horoscope, I predicted in October 2011, that this particular movement would fizzle out which has been the case. But social unrest is global. We see it in the "Arab Spring", we see with rioting in Greece & Spain and elsewhere. This is likely to continue for years to come.

So what does Uranus-Pluto foretell? It shakes things up. Many elected governments worldwide saw and will continue to see a change of political leadership. But it also "shakes things up" not just politically and economically but geologically! Uranus is about "surprises" and the "unexpected". Just recently we had hurricane Sandy in New York and New Jersey which was an "unthinkable" natural disaster. Many more such events can be expected over the next two to three years. This is why as in in 2001 before 9/11, we suggested investing in companies that deal with safety, security and protection (not as much defense stocks).

Also of concern to many financial astrologers is the last time Uranus and Pluto were square was 1932-1934, the depths of the great worldwide depression. All of the above suggests investment portfolios should carefully be risk adjusted and to seek protection from a wide variety of risks.

Think Traditional Swiss and Preserve Capital:

Focus on safety and protecting against downside risk.

Where appropriate, hedge or trade more frequently as well as paradoxically use longer term time horizons. Be highly liquid to be able to take advantage of "unexpected" events and opportunities.

Specifically, what and where then are we recommending in 2013 to invest in and avoid?

Note: H1 is first half of the year. H2 is the second half of the year. Q is Quarterly.

Five Trading & Investing Ideas For 2013

1. Weak Oil Prices Q1 2013 but Higher Oil Prices H2 2013 i.e. Summer/Fall Rally
2. Hold/Buy US bonds Q1 2013/Sell Q4 2013/Q1 2014.
3. US Large caps (DJIA) will outperform small caps. They should also outperform Nasdaq for much of H2 2013.
4. AVOID Germany and Australia; Buy Canada H2 2013.
5. Gold will be largely seasonal (Up Q1, Down Q2 and Up Q4). Silver is at great downside risk especially Q2 2013, and likely to underperform in 2013. Copper is positive and a buy H1 2013.

Finally for the benefit of readers of THE ASTROLOGICAL eMAGAZINE in India, I took a quick look. We expect a somewhat difficult and challenging year in 2013. Thereafter, happily, by as early as H2 2014, we believe India will become a welcome destination for global investment. ■
